

Subject/Grade: 7/8 Lesson Title: French
Teacher: Ian Bonnell

Stage 1: Identify Desired Results

Outcome(s):

Core French - pronunciation, Christmas theme.

Key Understandings: ('I Can' statements)

I can pronounce the French words we review and learn new vocabulary for Christmas.

Essential or Key Questions:

- How can I identify the Christmas item without speaking English

Prerequisite Learning:

Students should have a basic understanding of core french concepts at a Grade 7, 8 level.

Instructional Strategy(ies)

- Explanation
- Video instruction
- Research and find
- Competition

Stage 2: Determine Evidence for Assessing Learning

Formative: Assessing pronunciation through oral demonstration

Summative: Students will have a competition who can learn the Christmas terms relevant to the class. Assessment will be based on the oral contribution to Pictionary, their use of the words, and their effort to minimize the use of English.

Stage 3: Build Learning Plan

Review the words

Fill out a word cache with similar words to the games.

Ask the students to say the previously taught sounds out loud.

Stage 4: Reflection

This was a lot of fun. I kept having to reign the kids in because they were loving it. I could think up more strategies to decrease the noise, but I'd like to use this again.
