3. Instructions for Observer:

Organization of a complex lesson

- Is the lesson plan organized?
- Are the various parts of the lesson clear?

Clarity in direction

- Do I have the student's attention before I give directions? ✓
- Are the directions simple and clear? ✓
- After directions are students confused or do, they know what to do?

Initially you rushed but after the story you were at a nice pace.

They followed directions well

4. Data Collection

Olivia → you tried to pull her in by directing a question her way.
Slow down → if you slow down your instructions it may help them settle.

5. Other Comments

How do you know they understand?
→ have them paraphrase.

Good lists + focus on the senses.
- students had good responses

Everyone ~~was~~ got right to work.

You handled Olivia well. She has been silly all day.

2nd Setting → they knew what to do.

Olivia → moved her so she could focus.

Don gave the a time frame for finishing.

Kids are wiggly → end of the day.
